IRA Financial Group Introduces One-Day Set-Up Solo 401(k) Plan Solution for Sole Proprietors

PRWeb

IRA Financial Group, the leading provider of self-directed retirement plans, announces the introduction of the one-day set-up solo 401k plan solution" for sole proprietors and small businesses owners. The one-day solo plan set-up will allow plan participants to rollover former employer retirement funds as well as IRA funds to a self-directed retirement plan tax-free and penalty-free. The one-day set-up plan solution is designed specifically for individuals who have left their former employer in order to establish their own business and wish to rollover the retirement funds into a new retirement plan without delay. "The one-day solo 401(k) plan set-up program is perfect for retirement investors looking to get quick access to their retirement funds to make investments, such as real estate, quickly and without custodian consent," stated Susan Glass, a retirement tax specialist with the IRA Financial Group. "IRA Financial group's self-directed plan will allow plan participants make traditional as well as non-traditional investments, such as real estate with the retirement funds as well as borrow up to $50,000 tax-free for personal or business use," stated Ms. Glass.

IRA Financial Group's self-directed solo 401K Plan is a cost effective retirement plan that was designed specifically for the self-employed or the small business owner with no employees. IRA Financial group's solo 401K plan, also called the individual 401K or self-directed retirement plan is a retirement plan designed to maximize contributions and be less complex and less expensive to maintain than a conventional qualified retirement Plan. With IRA Financial Group's plan, a participant can make high contributions - up to $57,500 - borrow $50,000 or 50% of his or her account value, and make real estate and other investments tax-free and without custodian consent.
