This is the fourth book in a four-part series on Self-Directed retirement plans, which include “Going Solo”, the Checkbook IRA, and Turning Retirement Funds into Start-up Dreams

"Americans have one of the lowest savings rates for developed countries. Americans are the ultimate consumers, and that definitely plays a role. However, I believe that education -- or lack thereof -- is a big factor. Most people don't understand the basic concepts of retirement planning and how crucial it is, largely because it's not widely taught in our high schools or even our colleges and universities. The goal of this book is to educate Americans, especially Generation Xers and Millennials, that starting young is the key to retiring rich and the Roth account is the best way to accomplish this."

-Adam Bergman, Esq.
